The Sywell Aviation Museum is proud to announce an exciting series of talks to be held at the Cirrus Room, The Aviator Hotel Sywell, prior to the new season Grand Opening on Easter Saturday, 31st March 2018.

Sunday 18th February 2018 at 14.30hrs:

"Flying for Fun: the Vintage Aircraft Club & Light Aircraft Association"

by Steve Slater, CEO of the Light Aircraft Association

If you are interested in Vintage Aircraft, Light Aircraft, or Aviation History, or just like taking photographs of aircraft with varying degrees of vintage style, this is for you.

With his roots in flying as a 14yr old through a successful career including aviation and motor industry, with 15 yrs as 'the voice of Formula 1' in the Far East, Steve now owns and flies a Piper J-3 Cub and is co-owner and co-restorer of the famous 'Biggles Biplane' replica BE-2c.

Steve has been actively involved with light aviation for many years, including

Chairman of the Vintage Aircraft Club
and now

CEO of the Light Aircraft Association.

Discover how you too could become airborne and enjoy the thrill of flight.

Without the cost of a Spitfire or Lear Jet

Admission each talk: £5.00 per person

Groups may book tickets in advance
